

REPTILIA

REPTILE ZOO & EDUCATION FACILITY

Join our Team!!

Position: Animal Show Facilitator

Summary

Reptilia runs a variety of animal based programs from curriculum school visits, wrangling and weddings to birthday parties! Being an animal show facilitator is a fantastic role for students interested in the education, science or veterinary fields that have an interest and a passion for animals and the natural world!

Travel to the homes and event locations of our guests, perform an engaging, fun and informative show on a variety of harmless reptile species in celebration of special events such as a birthday. Opportunity to grow into doing more specialized shows such as school curriculum lessons, post-secondary programs and government training programs.

Availability Needed

Saturday and Sunday a must, Weekday availability a bonus. Typically considered a part-time role.

Transportation Mandatory

Prospective hosts must have access to their own vehicle and license to transport themselves and their animals from Reptilia and to the show location

Training

New hires will receive training on animal handling and Reptilia's procedures and policies related to the position. Animal knowledge will also be taught, but a basic understanding of biology and animals in general will be useful

Necessary Attributes

- Strong, well spoken presenter
- Outgoing and fun
- Active self learner
- Not afraid of reptiles and other creepy crawlies
- Interested in conservation and stewardship
- Know how to get concepts across to people, especially kids
- Enjoys working with children

Pay

Animal Show Facilitators are contractors that are paid per booking that they perform. Stipends factor in time and mileage travelled, and are quite competitive.

To Apply

Please e-mail your resume and cover letter stating why the position is of interest to you to central.casting@reptilia.org. Only candidates being considered will receive a reply.
